

Cantata: 1st Corinthians 13
for SATB Chorus and Piano

by Karen Amrhein

PERUSAL SCORE

I Corinthians 13

If I speak with the speech of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong, or a tinkling cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all my goods and deliver my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love has patience, love is kind. It does not envy, nor does it boast, love is not vain. Love does no injury, nor does it seek its own. Love is not easily provoked. It thinks no evil, it keeps no record of wrong, but rejoices in truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes. Love perseveres. Love prevails. Love never fails.

Where there are prophecies, they will cease. Where there is speech, it shall be stilled, where knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part. Yet when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. When I was an infant, as an infant I spoke, as an infant I thought, as an infant I reasoned. Yet when I had grown, I put away the things of infancy. Now we see through a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will fully know, just as I was fully known.

Now there remain: faith, hope, love, and of these the greatest is love.
